Section 1: Member information

The United Grand Lodge Discretionary Trust Overview

The Discretionary Trust is made up of two parts:

The Trust Cover

This is risk cover, but it is not insurance because the Trustee has a discretion as to whether or not to pay Claim and how much to pay.

The Insurance Cover

The Insurance Cover, which is insurance. A Member has a third-party beneficial interest in the Insurance Policy which is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and its Members.

The Discretionary Trust has been established to help manage the Members' risk of loss, destruction or damage to property and for Members who obtain this cover, consequential loss of profits.

There are risks that a Prospective Member or a Member should be aware of associated with the Discretionary Trust including:

1. The payment of benefits under the Trust Cover is at the discretion of the Trustee which means that the Trustee may exercise its discretion not to pay a Claim.
2. The Insurance Cover component has various conditions and exclusions. Therefore, if a Claim is in excess of the Individual Member's Deductible and the Trust Cover, and the Insurance Cover component comes into effect, the Claim may not be covered under the Insurance Cover component as a result of the conditions and exclusions.
3. Renewed membership of the Discretionary Trust is at the discretion of the Trustee and a Member's cover may cease after the expiry of the Period of Cover if renewed membership is not offered. If this happens, a Claim cannot be made for an event occurring after the expiry of the Period of Cover.
4. Should the funds within the Trust reach zero, a Claim cannot be paid under the Trust Cover, even if it is within the Period of Cover. However, the Claim may be addressed by the Insurance Cover (subject to its various conditions and exclusions).
5. The Trustee may, in its discretion, cancel a Member's membership in certain circumstances. Details of the relevant grounds, consequences and withdrawal process are set out under "Withdrawal and Cancellation of Membership" below.

A Prospective Member may become a Member of the Discretionary Trust by making the payment of the Membership Contributions within the date specified on the Tax Invoice or such longer period as is determined by the Trustee. The Insurance Broker will forward the Membership Contribution to the Trustee.

The Trustee pools the Membership Contributions of all Members and holds them in the Fund. The Fund is used to meet Claims under the Trust Cover, purchase the Insurance Cover and meet the costs of establishing and running the Discretionary Trust.

Membership of the Discretionary Trust is for the Period of Cover, unless cancelled earlier. A Claimant is entitled to lodge a Claim for events which occur after the Prospective Member becomes a Member and during the Period of Cover, but no later than 3 months after the expiry date of the Period of Cover.

At the end of the Period of Cover the membership of each Member under the Discretionary Trust ceases and the Member ceases to be covered. The Trustee will determine and advise the Member and the Advocate as soon as reasonably practicable prior to the end of the Period of Cover whether the Member will be offered renewed membership for the next Period of Cover and if so, the terms of the Trust Cover, Insurance Cover and to the extent possible, the Membership Contribution payable.

If the Trustee accepts a Claim, the Claimant must pay the Individual Member's Deductible as shown below and in the Insurance Policy (where it may be referred to as an 'excess', 'deductible', 'time deductible', as applicable). At the Trustee's discretion, the Trustee may pay the Claim and all associated expenses incurred under the Trust Cover.

Once the Trust Cover is exceeded, the Trustee will refer the Claim to the Insurer for the Insurer to decide whether or not to pay the Claim in accordance with the Insurance Cover (see below).

The Discretionary Trust is neither authorised under nor subject to the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), nor is it regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA).

Upon the closing of each Fund Period, any surplus in the Fund will be disbursed for the benefit of the majority of the Members of the Discretionary Trust, at the discretion of the Trustee.

This could be applied in the following ways:

- As a rebate on contributions for subsequent years; or
- For expenditure on administrative or operational issues relevant to the Discretionary Trust; or
- On issues, which are relevant to Members and/or Members' businesses or which advance the purposes of the Discretionary Trust generally.

Withdrawal and Cancellation of Membership

A Member may withdraw from the Trust by giving the Trustee not less than 90 days' written notice. A withdrawing Member must continue to comply with the terms of the Trust during the notice period.

The Trustee may, in consultation with the Advocate, cancel a Member's membership in the Trust where:

- a) the Member breaches a term of the Trust Deed or any other terms, rules or conditions imposed by the Trustee that apply to that Member;
- b) the Trustee suspects that the law prohibits the person from being a Member;
- c) the Trustee determines that the Member is creating a disproportionate administrative burden on the Trust, the Trustee or other Members;
- d) the Member has failed to pay a Membership Contribution to the Trust within 30 days of the due date for payment; or
- e) the Trustee considers the Member has acted in a manner that is prejudicial to or not in the interests of advancing the purposes of the Trust.

Prior to cancelling a Member's membership, the Trustee may require the Member to show cause within a designated period as to why their membership should not be cancelled. The Trustee retains the ultimate discretion as to whether a Member may remain a member of the Trust. The Trustee may also impose further conditions on a Member (including requiring further Membership Contributions on account of any financial impact caused to the Trust) where the Trustee permits a Member to remain a Member of the Trust.

Where a Member withdraws from or is removed from the Trust:

- i. the Member has no right to make any Claim against the Trust in respect of any event occurring on or after the date of withdrawal or removal; and
- ii. the Member shall otherwise retain their rights to make Claims in relation to any event occurring prior to the date of withdrawal or removal.

Individual Member's Deductible

The terms used in this section have the same definitions as those within the Insurance Policy, where not already defined in this PDS.

On any Claim accepted by the Trust up to the Single Event Limit or the Annual Aggregate Limit as defined in the Insurance Policy, the Member shall bear the following Individual Member's Deductible: $1,000 for any Claim or series of Claims arising from one event.

If the Single Event Limit is exceeded or the Aggregate Limit as defined in the Insurance Policy has been fully eroded, the Insurer will assume responsibility for any portion of the Claim that exceeds those limits. No additional Individual Member's Deductible will be payable by the Member if the Single Event Limit is exceeded.

Where a new Claim for an event occurring during the Period of Cover is made during the Trust Closure Period (i.e. within three months following the expiry date of the Period of Cover), then the Trust will remain open to accept all new Claims. If the Single Event Limit is exceeded or the Aggregate Limit has been fully eroded or the Trust Closure Period has expired, then the Individual Member's Deductibles referred to below shall apply to each Claim made. Additionally, all new Claims notified after the end of the Trust Closure Period will be the responsibility of the Insurer in its entirety, subject to the Individual Member's Deductibles referred to below, the terms, conditions and exclusions of the Insurance Policy.

Each Member shall bear a separate Individual Member's Deductible in respect of each and every event or series of events. The application of the Deductible shall be per Insured, irrespective of whether multiple Insureds are affected by the same event.

Material Loss or Damage

Earthquake, Subterranean Fire or Volcanic Eruption:

- (a) $20,000; or
 - (b) an amount equal to 1% of the total Declared Values at the Situation where the damage occurs;
- whichever is the lesser.

Flood	$25,000
Storm Damage	$25,000
Bushfire	$25,000
Fire & Explosion	$25,000
Any other Losses	$5,000
Consequential Loss (for Members who have this cover)
Remote Premises of Public Utilities (B)	48 Hours
Premises in the Vicinity (Prevention of Access)	48 Hours
Unspecified Suppliers' and/or Customers' Premises (Australia & New Zealand) (Single Limit) (B)	48 Hours
Other Contributing Properties	48 Hours

Where any Individual Member's Deductible is described as a period of time, it shall be subject to the conditions contained in the Insurance Policy, which is available on request from the Insurance Broker.

Trust Cover

Due to the Trustee's discretion, a Claim can be lodged under the Trust Cover for any event, not only those events that would be covered under the Insurance Cover (see Section 2 of the PDS) and the Trustee will consider the Claim.

The Trust Cover is subject to a Single Event Limit and an Annual Aggregate Limit (currently based on the Members for the 2026/27 Period of Cover). The Annual Aggregate Limit is subject to change based on the number of Members. Please review your Tax Invoice or contact the Insurance Broker if you have any questions.

A benefit of the Trust Cover is that Claims, which may not be covered under the Insurance Policy wording of the Insurance Cover, may be paid by the Trustee, subject to this being for the benefit of the Members. However, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may not exercise its discretion in favour of the Claimant. For details of further risks associated with this product, please refer to Section 1 of this PDS.

In exercising its discretion, the Trustee cannot be influenced by anyone and is legally bound to conduct its duties and obligations in accordance with trust law. The Trustee must settle each Claim in accordance with the merits of the Claim.

Insurance Cover

Insurance is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and its Members and provides cover for a Claim, which is:

1. in excess of the Individual Member's Deductible and the Trust Cover; and
2. subject to the Insurance Policy terms and conditions.

Certain details of the Insurance Cover can be found in Section 2 of this PDS. A copy of the Insurance Policy is available on request from the Insurance Broker.

Any Claim not met by the Trust Cover and/or the Insurance Cover will be borne by the Claimant.

Making a Claim

All Claims or potential Claims must be notified to Claims X as soon as possible but no later than 3 months after the expiry date of the Period of Cover. A claim form can be obtained by contacting the Insurance Broker or Claims X.
