Section 1: Member information

ACTA Discretionary Trust Overview

The Discretionary Trust is made up of two parts:

1

The Trust Cover

This is risk cover, but it is not insurance because the Trustee has a discretion as to whether or not to pay Claim and how much to pay.

2

The Insurance Cover

The Insurance Cover, which is insurance. You have a third-party beneficial interest in the Insurance Policy which is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and you.

The Discretionary Trust has been established to help manage Your risk of loss or damage to firearms in storage, transit or in use. The Discretionary Trust has also been established to help manage the above risk for You on behalf of the Advocate's Active Members.

There are risks that You should be aware of associated with the Discretionary Trust including:

1. The payment of benefits under the Trust Cover is at the discretion of the Trustee which means that the Trustee may exercise its discretion not to pay a Claim.
2. The Insurance Cover component has various conditions and exclusions. Therefore, if a Claim is in excess of the Trust Cover, and the Insurance Cover component comes into effect, the Claim may not be covered under the Insurance Cover component as a result of the various limits, conditions and exclusions.
3. Renewed membership of the Discretionary Trust is at the discretion of the Trustee and your cover may cease after the expiry of the Period of Cover if renewed membership is not offered. If this happens, a Claim cannot be made for an event occurring after the expiry of the Period of Cover.
4. Should the funds within the Trust reach zero, a Claim cannot be paid under the Trust Cover, even if it is within the Period of Cover. However, the Claim may be addressed by the Insurance Cover (subject to its various limits, conditions and exclusions).
5. The Trustee may, in its discretion, cancel a Member's membership in certain circumstances. Details of the relevant grounds, consequences and withdrawal process are set out under "Withdrawal and Cancellation of Membership" below.

You may become a Member of the Discretionary Trust by making the payment of the Membership Contributions within the date specified on the Tax Invoice, or such longer period as is determined by the Trustee. The Insurance Broker will forward the Membership Contribution to the Trustee.

The Trustee pools the Membership Contributions of Members and holds them in the Fund. The Fund is used to meet Claims under the Trust Cover, purchase the Insurance Cover and meet the costs of establishing and running the Discretionary Trust.

The Trustee manages all future liabilities and payments to Members to the aggregate level of the Membership Contributions during the Fund period and purchases Insurance Cover to ensure that all future liabilities and payments to Members above the aggregate level of Membership Contributions during the Fund Period can be satisfied.

The Trustee regularly assesses claims performance against Membership Contributions, and the appointed auditor of the trust also performs an audit of all claims made against payments and accruals.

Membership of the Discretionary Trust is for the Period of Cover, unless cancelled earlier. A Claimant is entitled to lodge a Claim for events which give rise to loss, under the Trust Cover which occur after You become a Member and during the Period of Cover, but no later than 3 months after the expiry of the Period of Cover.

At the end of the Period of Cover Your membership under the Discretionary Trust ceases and you cease to be covered. The Trustee will determine and advise You in writing as soon as reasonably practical prior to the end of the Period of Cover whether You will be offered renewed membership for the next Period of Cover and if so, the terms of cover and the terms of the Trust Cover and to the extent possible, the Membership Contribution payable.

At the Trustee's discretion, the Trustee may pay the Claim and all associated expenses incurred under the Trust Cover.

Once the Trust Cover is exceeded, the Trustee will refer the Claim to the Underwriter for the Underwriter to decide whether or not to pay the Claim in accordance with the Insurance Cover (see below).

The Discretionary Trust is neither authorised under nor subject to the Insurance Act 1973 (Cth), nor is it regulated by the Australian Prudential Regulation Authority ("APRA").

Upon the closing of each Fund Period, any surplus in the Fund will be disbursed for your benefit, at the discretion of the Trustee.

This could be applied in the following ways:

- As a rebate on contributions for subsequent years; or
- For expenditure on administrative or operational issues relevant to the Discretionary Trust; or
- On issues, which are relevant to You or which advance the purposes of the Discretionary Trust generally.

The Trustee can dissolve the Trust after the expiry of the Fund Period. Upon dissolution of the Trust, any Fund balance remaining after payment of all liabilities of the Trust must be paid to a charity at the Trustee's discretion to which gifts are deductible in accordance with the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth).

Withdrawal and Cancellation of Membership

A Member may withdraw from the Trust by giving the Trustee not less than 90 days' written notice. A withdrawing Member must continue to comply with the terms of the Trust during the notice period.

The Trustee may, in consultation with the Advocate, cancel a Member's membership in the Trust where:

- a) the Member breaches a term of the Trust Deed or any other terms, rules or conditions imposed by the Trustee that apply to that Member;
- b) the Trustee suspects that the law prohibits the person from being a Member;
- c) the Trustee determines that the Member is creating a disproportionate administrative burden on the Trust, the Trustee or other Members;
- d) the Member has failed to pay a Membership Contribution to the Trust within 30 days of the due date for payment; or
- e) the Trustee considers the Member has acted in a manner that is prejudicial to or not in the interests of advancing the purposes of the Trust.

Prior to cancelling a Member's membership, the Trustee may require the Member to show cause within a designated period as to why their membership should not be cancelled. The Trustee retains the ultimate discretion as to whether a Member may remain a member of the Trust. The Trustee may also impose further conditions on a Member (including requiring further Membership Contributions on account of any financial impact caused to the Trust) where the Trustee permits a Member to remain a Member of the Trust.

Where a Member withdraws from or is removed from the Trust:

- i. the Member has no right to make any Claim against the Trust in respect of any event occurring on or after the date of withdrawal or removal; and
- ii. the Member shall otherwise retain their rights to make Claims in relation to any event occurring prior to the date of withdrawal or removal.

Trust Cover

Due to the Trustee's discretion, a Claim can be lodged under the Trust Cover for any event, not only those events that would be covered under the Insurance Cover (see Section 2 of the PDS) and the Trustee will consider the Claim.

The maximum amount of cover for a single event is up to $15,000 under the Trust Cover. The Annual Aggregate Limit under the Trust Cover for the Period of Cover is $125,000, whereby anything above this will be referred to the Underwriter, who has a claims aggregate limit of $25,000 for the Period of Cover.

Please review your Tax Invoice or contact the Insurance Broker if you have any questions.

A benefit of the Discretionary Trust Cover is that Claims, which may not be covered under the Insurance Policy wording of the Insurance Cover may be paid by the Trustee, subject to this being for Your benefit. However, the Trustee, in its sole discretion, may not exercise its discretion in favour of the Claimant. For details of further risks associated with this product, please refer to Section 1 of this PDS.

In exercising its discretion, the Trustee cannot be influenced by anyone and is legally bound to conduct its duties and obligations in accordance with trust law. The Trustee must settle each Claim in accordance with the merits of the Claim.

Insurance Cover

Insurance is purchased by the Trustee for the Discretionary Trust and You and You on behalf of the Advocate's Active Members and provides cover for a Claim, which is:

1. In excess of the Trust Cover; and
2. Subject to the Insurance Policy terms and conditions, including applicable exclusions.

Certain details of the Insurance Cover can be found in Section 2 of this PDS. A copy of the Insurance Policy is available on request from the Insurance Broker. Please ensure you review the Insurance Policy for the terms, conditions and exclusions.

Any Claim not met by the Trust Cover and/or the Insurance Cover will be borne by the Claimant.
