

Liability Insurance Newsletter

Welcome to Howden Newsletter!

Every month, we will bring you the latest news on emerging risks & exposures. If you have any questions or wish to get in touch with one of our Liability Specialists, please contact us.

Product Recall

15 US states grapple with Salmonella outbreak linked to cantaloupes

The outbreak has been linked to cantaloupes that have been recalled due to potential contamination. Several brands of whole and pre-cut cantaloupes have been included in the recall. Read Here

Specialty injectables maker Exela issues recall after particles turn up in 3 different drugs

Rogue particles turning up in drugs has caused a plethora of recalls in recent years, most recently affecting pharma giants Pfizer and GSK. Now, North Carolina-based specialty drugmaker Exela Pharma Sciences has taken the contamination hit. Read Here

FDA hands down 2 more Class I labels to drug delivery device recalls, now from Baxter, Fresenius

FDA doled out its most serious label to a pair of recalls of devices used in medication delivery. Read Here

Bayer pulls batch of cancer med Vitrakvi over bacterial contamination concerns

The threat of microbial contamination has triggered yet another drug recall, this time from German pharma bigwig Bayer. Read Here

D & O

Bulgarian-origin woman files sexual harassment case against Cadila Pharma's MD

The petition consists of allegations including sexual harassment. Justice JC Doshi of the high court summoned the records and proceedings of the case from the lower court and scheduled further hearing on the plea from Dec 4. Read Here

Auto News

Magma HDI General Insurance develops specialised insurance cover for EV batteries

The company has launched this cover because prevailing insurance offerings are primarily tailored for internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles, resulting in coverage limitations for EV and HEV owners. Read Here

Cyber Insurance

India's Infosys says US unit hit by cyber security event

The company said it is working with a cyber security company to resolve the issue and that it had launched an investigation to identify the potential impact on systems and data. Read Here

Leaders Speak: Data Protection — These are the key cybersecurity imperatives for Indian healthcare providers

Without adequate security, hackers can damage/change information and misuse data as personal health information is worth at least 10 times the financial information on the black market, writes GE HealthCare's Joji George. Read Here

Suzuki Motorcycle India breach forces plant shutdown

According to Autocar India, the country's car & bike news outlet, the breach delayed the production of over 20,000 vehicles. Read Here

India emerges as top-3 target for nation-state driven cyber-attacks

Ransomware attacks skyrocket; Microsoft report cautions against multifactor authentication fatigue. Read Here

Over 80% Indian companies hit with cyber attacks last year: Report

Out of these 83% of companies, 48% revealed that they experienced 10 or more cyberattacks last year. Read Here

HOWDEN

If you do not wish you receive the newsletter, please email us at communication@howdenindia.com