

Supporting you to protect your most important asset

From their first day in your organisation to their last, your people are exposed to risk. Understanding and minimising this risk throughout their employment journey helps your people and your business to thrive.

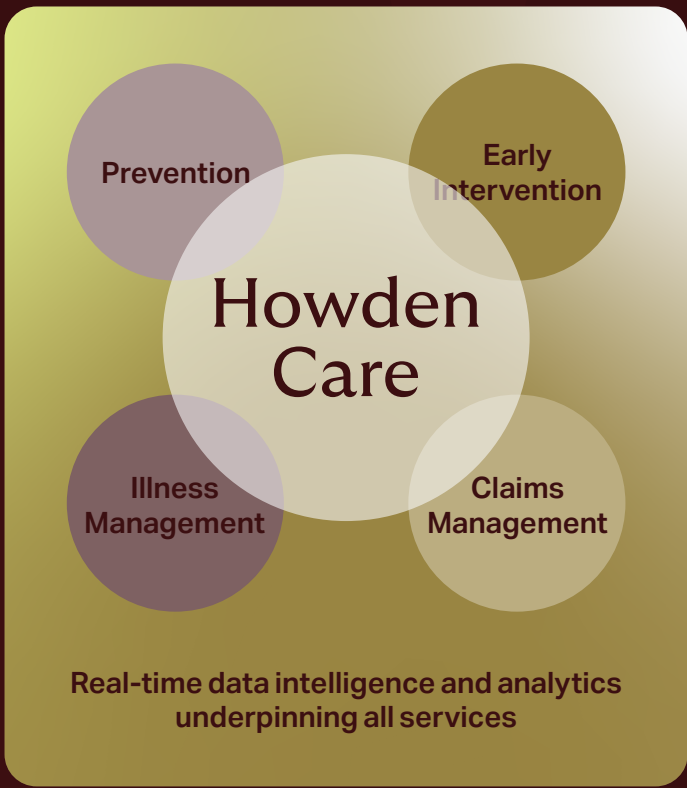

Howden Care provides highly specialised injury and illness prevention and management solutions that deliver real cultural, financial and health benefits to your people and your organisation.

Why should your organisation make workplace care a priority?

- People wellbeing.
Keeping your people healthy, happy and productive makes sense.
- Safeguard your business.
Protecting you and your business from potential financial and criminal liability as a result of a failure to provide a safe and healthy workplace.
- Financial impacts.
Reduce the financial impact of illness and injury on your ACC premium and other people risk insurance premiums.
- Hidden costs.
Minimise the hidden costs of illness and injury – poor culture, presenteeism, absenteeism, talent acquisition and retention to name a few.

Reducing claims, reducing costs

Our approach is focused on maximising care and protection, while minimising exposure and premiums. We are passionate about ensuring you have a trusted partner working on your claims and protecting your employees all day, every day.

An organisation’s total cost of workplace risk & injury, capturing both direct and indirect costs can be as much as four times its premium
